Experience

I've learned English 9 years in school. 2017 I planned a trip by myself to Australia. At least I spend there a few months in and near Melbourne. This was the most impressive trip I've ever done. My English is much better now and I understand more dialects than before. Smalltalks with customers are no problem. I understand the operating procedures too. As long as I can rewrite some words it works well. Specially for my work at the Hotel Avenue in Nuremberg I talked half of the time in English with the customers and had much fun. In Australia I need to talk in English for bank affairs, job searching, shopping, medical appointments and much more.
