Experience

Currently I am doing my bachelor in textile sciences and looking forward for exciting challenges beside my studies. I was working four years as a waitress in a cafe. I got to know people very well and learnt a lot about service and staying friendly in every situation. Later I was working for a well known fashion brand as an retail assistant. After that I was also working as a retail assistant for a luxury fashion brand in Düsseldorf/Königsallee. In regular distances I am also working as an interviewer in a market research institute for a long time already.
