Experience

I am a Cameroonian and worked for almost two years in the catering service of hotels in my area before I arrived in Germany. The work consisted of table service, wine service and sale of products on occasion. Of course smiling, friendly, very comfortable in English, listening to customers ... I like the professions server, salesman, promoter and programmer for the variety of tasks and meetings related to the reception of clients. I also have a passion for gastronomy, cooking, tourism and computers. As you can see on my CV, I have been able to do internships in which I have understood the problems of sales and hospitality and customer satisfaction. Can work long, I'm available week / weekend / evening. I also master inventory techniques and orders with great flexibility.
