Experience

Multiple employment at Marburger Bund general meetings in Estrel-Hotel and DocSteps fairs (for medicine students) as a waitress and an organizer. Several experience in retail trade and customer contact (always friendly and open-minded). Stayed three months at an English Academy in Australia to improve my English. I graduated from the "upper intermediate class" with "good". At the time I am learning Spanish. For my job at Depot (decoration-shop) at Central Station my English skills were required all the time. My language and writing skills are fluently. Student-trainee at Toll Collect at the department for Accounting and Controlling. At the time student at school of economics and law in Berlin in fifth semester, degree course "public administration". Worked at Depot as a gift wrapper and took over activities of a Visual Merchandiser. Very friendly and confident appearance through ... more working experience can be seen online
