Experience

I gained experience in taking over the representative role of the host at the 69. Berlinale festival through the Busch und Dähn Services. Other than that I presented and explained the product of the company "Staubraub" at a booth at a traid fare on federal and state level and also answered the open questions of the visitors and last but not least sold them the product. In contrast to that I worked at ICKE Design in the department for advertising, graphic and product design and had the opportunity later on at the Rixdorfer Christmas market to acquired experience dealing with the cash register. Additionally I strengthened my ability to organise and take responsibility into my own hands as well as dealing with customers directly by being a dog sitter on the side. At my internship at Upcycling Deluxe in the department for product photography one of the tasks I also took over was the inventory preparation
