Experience

During the last years I've worked for two event agencies. That way I'm experienced in executing different promotion events (e. g. handing out flyers and give-aways, executing prize competitions independently, servicing different events/games for kids, welcoming guests at evening events and checking the coats etc.) and teambuilding events. As a communicative, team-minded, and out-going person I like to interact with people and I enjoy the varying fields of activities at promotion events. - I speak english fluently (no business english).
