Experience

I'm 24 years old and a business student in the last semester. During high school, I worked as a waitress in a cafe/ restaurant. On weekends or after school I also worked with kids in preparation for my time in the USA as an aupair. After I came back I started studying while I worked in a callcenter before I started jobs as a working student (marketing, sales and account management). On weekends I help at city festivals or christmas markets to sell drinks since a few years. Last year I also was in the organisational committee of an open-air theatre play at which I also gained some hostess experiences.
