Experience

I already gained experience in the areas of service, hostess and promotion. Before and during high school I worked as a waitress for 2 years in a beer garden, which is why the operation of beer dispensers is no problem for me. Then I could deepen my service experience in a pizzeria in another year. Even carrying several plates at once is no problem for me. As a hostess, I have worked at various fairs and events, such as the IFA in Berlin. In addition, I was able to gain my first experience in event management, as I planned, organized and accompanied events such as public viewings, confirmations, birthdays, etc. for the waiters. In the area of ??promotion, I gained experience in distributing flyers during my school years.
