Experience

I was working as a teacher aid in Russia, I had the opportunity to help the little children in German and English language class (also helping the graduation class in English language class). At the same time I was going to school there to improve my Russian. My experience working in a restaurant and in an ice cream cafe as a waitress showed me how much fun it is to work with people. I then worked for a short while in a kitchen, helping the chef. That showed me the other side of working in a restaurant, so I can understand the importance of giving the chef accurate information with orders.
