Experience

Being a student and having worked in various side jobs, I have been able to acquire expertise in different areas. Assisting in event organization for different events in Cologne and Aachen as well as working as an event promoter, I gained a lot of experience in team work. My work at Riva Bar (Düsseldorf) has taught me to perform physically demanding tasks under time pressure and react quickly to customer requests. Through retail jobs such as working in a book store during the winter break and at SPAR supermarket in Tirana for 1 month of my summer vacation I was able to not only improve my storing and product arranging skills, but also my skills of keeping count of goods and taking care of bookshop inventory. Working at the travel agency "Elinor Travel" in Düsseldorf has further increased my ability to deal with customers and to handle myself in different situations. I consider
