Experience

I started as a sorting help at a groceries store (EDEKA) from age 16-18, afterwards I worked for 3 years during the summer months at a garden cafe starting in 2016. I have been a youth officer in a youth facility since 2014. Right now I study political science and business studies in the sixth semester. I am also a member a student initiative, that organises socially relevant events at my university, as well as a vicarious member of student parliament.
